SPEAKERS:

John Monaghan

John is a parishioner of Leixlip since 1972.

He was involved in the Parish Development & Renewal programme in the 1990's at parish and Diocesan level.

He has been a member of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul since 1985 and is currently the SVP National Vice President and media spokesperson.

John Waters

John Waters is an author and newspaper columnist.

His most recent book Beyond Consolation, (Continuum 2010) reflects on the Ireland of his time and his life within it, and explores why modern culture has come to glory in a form of pessimism that seems certain to destroy it: the belief that doubting the infinite and the eternal is evidence of intelligence.

Meidhbhin Ni Urdail

Meidhbhin was born in Cork city and is the eldest of five girls. She is married, lives in Ballinteer and works as a lecturer in Modern Irish at U.C.D.

Meidhbhin will share how the re-awakening of her faith as an adult has been an important landmark in her life

A Vision for your Life:

Hilary McCann from Ballinteer, Co. Dublin was a pioneer in the promotion of Parish Cell groups in Ireland. Together with local cell participants she will share how a personal relationship with the Lord through cell groups has enriched her life in so many ways.
